

LearningExpress Library User Testimonials

"Highly recommended for all libraries with test-preparation collections."

—Library Journal

"Your program is one of the best investments our library has made in educational tools. After using it to practice for the ACT, one student received a full scholarship to Jacksonville State University. Our library serves an area that faces demanding economic challenges—your program enables us to provide these patrons with more comprehensive services."

"West Virginia students of all ages and levels are finding LearningExpress Library to be a valuable educational tool as their test scores improve. New library patrons are coming through our doors in response to the success stories being told by friends and families using LearningExpress Library. It is wonderful to be able to provide this service to our communities."

"We have a dedicated computer at the Reference desk for LearningExpress for patrons that need longer than the one hour limit that we have on our public computers. So many times, we can advertise and nothing happens, but we are having a nice response with patrons coming in to use it. One patron had the GED on a disk and she wanted to download it on the public computer. Luckily it would not accept it, so I had the opportunity to show her that she could access the test on LearningExpress. She studied here for her hour and was going to go home and access LearningExpress from her computer there. She was very happy."

"I logged on to the Praxis exam for teachers. I have already taken the "real" test but I wanted to know how they compared to each other. They were in fact VERY similar. I thought of all the people that I take classes with that have had a really hard time passing that test. Many of them take it over and over again. This is a valuable tool for them as well as for others needing specific test practice."
