

LearningExpress's Commercial Driver's License Practice Tests

Truck drivers are a constant presence on America's highways, and the job outlook is good for those wanting to become commercial drivers. In fact, the U.S. Department of Labor expects the number of trucking jobs to increase in the coming years.

A commercial driver's license (CDL) is required to operate a commercial motor vehicle (CMV). To get a CDL, candidates have to pass written and skills tests, most of which are given at local Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV).

The LearningExpress CDL Practices offer CDL candidates the essential, authentic practice they need to perform their best on the most popular written knowledge tests.

We offer online practices based on the content of official General Knowledge tests as well the most popular endorsement tests: Passenger Transport, Combination Vehicles, Hazardous Materials, Tank Vehicles, Doubles and Triples, and Air Brakes.
